The New Mexico Mortgage Finance Authority is committed to its mission of providing quality affordable housing opportunities to all New Mexicans. That’s why we were created by the state legislature in 1975, and that’s what we work to accomplish every day.

MFA provides funding and oversight for more than 30 programs at no cost to the state of New Mexico. Using funds from housing bonds, tax credits and other federal and state agencies, our programs provide down payment assistance, emergency shelter, rehabilitation for aging homes, affordable rental construction and rental assistance and subsidies.

MFA’s partners are the ones who deliver all of these services to the people in our state who need them the most. Lenders, real estate agents, nonprofit service providers, affordable property owners and managers, developers and staff from local and tribal governments — these are the people we work with on a daily basis who make MFA’s mission a reality.

In the pages of this book, you will learn about our partners and discover how they can help you find safe, stable housing. We are all here to help you find the best housing possible for you and your family.

Please visit our website at housingnm.org for complete information about MFA and its programs. You can also find an electronic version of this directory on our website.

We’re MFA. And we are Housing New Mexico.
You don’t have to be a first-time homebuyer to use MFA’s homeownership programs.

Section One

Homebuyers

MFA Approved Lenders
Habitat for Humanity in New Mexico
One of the biggest hurdles to owning a home is saving enough for a down payment. MFA can help! With a minimal investment of $500, qualified first-time homebuyers can receive up to $8,000 in down payment and closing cost assistance. We have programs available to help repeat homebuyers as well.

When you’re ready to join the almost 70,000 New Mexico families who have used MFA’s programs to buy a home, your MFA-approved lender will be there every step of the way. Your lender can also show you how to improve your credit score and help you determine how much home you can afford.

Housing Services Providers

Agencies Listed Alphabetically
Agencies Listed by Housing Services Provided
Agencies Listed by Area

MFA-funded programs assist more than 7,500 individuals experiencing homelessness every year.
MFA partners with nonprofit organizations throughout New Mexico to provide emergency shelter, homelessness assistance and home repairs. Many of these organizations also provide support programs like substance abuse counseling and case management. In addition, MFA partners with housing agencies that build and manage housing for the elderly or individuals with special needs.

All of these organizations and agencies are listed in the following pages. Look for the key at the bottom of each page to learn what type of housing or service is provided by each entity. If you are unable to find the help you need, please call MFA at 1.800.444.6880.

Rental Housing

Affordable Rental Properties
Subsidized Rental Properties
Public Housing Authorities and Federal Housing Agencies

MFA monitors more than 28,000 affordable and subsidized rental homes for quality and safety.
Affordable Rental Properties

Rental homes are called “affordable” when residents are required to meet certain income limits in order to live there and when rental rates are set at or below the average rate for similar rental properties in the area. When you call or visit one of the affordable apartment communities listed on the following pages, staff will tell you if you meet income limits and will let you know what their affordable rental rates are. Property staff will ask for additional information including your credit and rental history and the number of people living in your household. They will do a background check.

PLEASE NOTE: MFA does not own or manage any affordable rental properties in New Mexico.

MFA cannot be involved in the following legal issues: lawsuits involving residents and the owners or management agents; eviction matters; and interpretation of local laws and ordinance. For legal advice concerning these matters, please contact New Mexico Legal Aid at 505.243.7871.

Steps to apply for residency at an affordable rental property:

1. Call or visit the property.
2. Ask about income qualification, rental rates and availability.
3. Request and complete an application. Ask if the application will be reviewed right away or if your application will be added to a waiting list.

MFA is a quasi-governmental agency and receives no operating money from the state.
Thinking about buying your first home?

Buying a home makes good financial sense. In addition to providing financial security and creating more spendable income, owning a home you can afford means you will have a safe, stable place to live for many, many years.

Here are some things to consider as you move toward homeownership:

1. How much home can I afford?
   Generally, your monthly house payment should not exceed 30 percent of your gross income, and your debt ratio should not be more than 45 percent of your gross income.

2. How much do I need to save for a down payment?
   Calculating 4 percent of the purchase price will give you a rough estimate of what you’ll need. The great news is that MFA has programs for qualified buyers that can cover some or all of your down payment.

3. What if my credit isn’t perfect?
   You must have a minimum credit score of 620 in order to use MFA’s down payment assistance programs. If you’re not quite there yet, one of MFA’s housing counseling agencies can help.

4. How do I choose a lender?
   Interview at least two lenders to get a sense of who will be the best fit for you. If you plan to take advantage of MFA’s down payment assistance program, you must use an MFA-approved lender.

For more information about MFA’s homeownership programs, go to housingnm.org or call an MFA homeownership representative at 505-843-6881.
Rental homes are called “subsidized” when the owner receives funds from the government to cover a portion of the rent charged. That allows the resident to be charged a reduced monthly rent, which cannot be more than 30 percent of the household’s total, adjusted income.

Subsidized rental housing includes homes for special populations like the elderly and individuals with a mental or physical disability. Look for the codes next to the subsidized property listings on the following pages to see which apartment communities provide this type of specialized housing. Listings that are not coded are family properties.

In addition to income requirements, each property will have other criteria that must be met in order to live there. Information about the number of persons in the household, credit history, rental history and a background check will be required. Additional qualifying information may be required for specific properties.

A security deposit – not to exceed an amount equal to monthly rent – will be required at the time a rental agreement is signed. Application and/or screening fees are prohibited.

PLEASE NOTE: MFA does not own or manage any affordable rental properties in New Mexico.

MFA cannot be involved in the following legal issues: lawsuits involving residents and the owners or management agents; eviction matters; and interpretation of local laws and ordinance. For legal advice concerning these matters, please contact New Mexico Legal Aid at 505.243.7871.

Steps to apply for residency at a subsidized rental property:

1. Call or visit the property.
2. Ask about income qualification, rental rates and availability.
3. Request and complete an application. Ask if the application will be reviewed right away or if your application will be added to a waiting list.

Affordable Housing Organizations

Affordable Housing Developers and Technical Support Providers
Trade Associations

MFA provides an average of $530 million in low-income financing and grants for affordable housing and related services every year.
Affordable Housing Developers and Technical Support Providers

Building and managing affordable housing requires a team of people to provide equity, technical expertise, and logistical support as well as on-the-ground construction and management experience. The organizations listed in the following pages are long-term MFA partners that have decades of combined experience in all aspects of affordable housing.
