

PENALTY FOR FALSE OR FRAUDULENT STATEMENT: Title 18, Section 1001 of the U.S. Code states that knowingly providing false or misleading statements or information, concealing facts, or submitting falsified documents in connection with a federally funded housing program is a violation of federal law and could result in civil or criminal penalties such as fines, imprisonment, or both. This includes false statements about income, assets, or eligibility during application or recertification.